

GUIDELINES FOR GRADING

Mona Needs a Vacation

RATING CRITERIA	A	B	C	D	F
Did you use linear perspective correctly?
Did you use an additional three or more “tricks” to create the illusion of depth in your picture? List them here (size, color, overlapping, placement, details more up front than on far away objects, atmospheric perspective)
Did you create a setting for Mona’s vacation that was creative and unusual?
Did you add extra details to Mona and your setting?
Did you finish the reflection below in complete sentences?

- A = 4
- B = 3
- C = 2
- D = 1
- F = 0

Check the box you feel is fair for your work for each of the Rating Criteria, then assign the value above for each grade. Total the amount of points and divided by 5 to get your letter grade using the table above. You may add a + or – depending on the effort you put into your work. _____ TOTAL

REFLECTION: Using complete sentences complete the following questions.

1. What did you like about your finished project? 2.What would you change if you were to do it over? 3. Name something important that you learned from this lesson.
